

Australian
Calisthenic
Federation

Cadet's Code of Ethics

1. Ensure the participants' time spent with you is a positive experience.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> All athletes are deserving of equal attention and opportunities.
2. Treat each participant as an individual	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Respect the talent, development stage and goals of each individual.
3. Be fair, considerate and honest with participants.
4. Operate within the rules and spirit of your sport.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The guidelines on national bodies governing your sport should be followed.
5. Any physical contact with participants should be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Appropriate to the situation Necessary for the participant's skill development.
6. Refrain from any form of personal abuse toward participants.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> This includes verbal, physical and emotional abuse. Be alert to any form of abuse directed towards your participants from other sources whilst they are in your care.
7. Show concern and caution toward sick and injured participants.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Report any suspected injury or sickness to the coach. Maintain the same interest and support toward sick and injured participants.
8. Be a positive role model for your sport.

Cadets Should.....

- Be treated with respect and openness
- Have access to self improvement opportunities
- Be matched with their level of involvement appropriate to their level of competence.